The Chief Executive Officer and President shall preside at any Annual or Special Meeting of the members, provided that if the Chief Executive Officer and President is absent or otherwise requests, the Chair of the Board of Trustees shall preside and, provided further, that if both the Chief Executive Officer and President and Chair of the Board of Trustees are absent, the Chair of the National Leadership Council ("NLC") shall preside at such meeting. Unless otherwise provided by statute or these Bylaws, votes taken at any Annual or Special Meeting at which a quorum is present may be decided by oral vote, unless a simple majority demands that such vote be by written ballot.

ARTICLE IV
National Leadership Council

Section 1. Purposes. The purposes of the National Leadership Council (“NLC”) are:

- a. National Conservation Agenda. To develop and amend, as needed, the Corporation’s National Conservation Agenda and set priorities among issues included in that agenda. The NLC shall promptly communicate all amendments to the National Conservation Agenda and its conservation priorities to all levels of the organization at the time amendments are made or new priorities established.
- b. Implementation of National Conservation Agenda. To direct the implementation of the National Conservation Agenda in projects that involve all levels of the organization, including the NLC itself, Corporation staff, state councils, local chapters and individual members. Nothing in this sub-paragraph is intended to alter the supervision responsibilities or requirements for Corporation staff members found in other parts of these Bylaws or in the Corporation’s personnel policies.
- c. Organizational Capacity. To plan and help implement national and regional initiatives designed to improve the capacity of the Corporation to fulfill its mission at all levels, assist volunteer leadership, state councils, local chapters, individual members and staff, facilitate communication between the Corporation and the Grassroots members. This area of the NLC’s responsibilities shall include communication with, training and advice to the volunteer leadership of the organization, improving the capacity of state councils and local chapters to fulfill the mission of the Corporation, integrating efforts of volunteer components of the Corporation and the Corporation staff in fulfilling the Corporation’s mission, and recruiting volunteer leaders.

Section 2. National Leadership Council Membership.

- a. Qualifications. The NLC shall be composed of one NLC Representative from each Trout Unlimited state council, an NLC Chair and an NLC secretary. To be eligible to serve as an NLC Representative or officer, an individual must be a member of the Corporation in good standing, must have served in a statewide TU office or a chapter leadership position and must be familiar with coldwater resource and TU organizational issues. NLC Representatives should also have the following qualifications: knowledge of coldwater fisheries issues of concern to their state; knowledge of their state’s council and chapter organizational needs and concerns; proven communication skills; the ability to work effectively with staff and volunteer components of the Corporation; and experience in implementing, directing, or organizing conservation efforts.
- b. States Without Councils. The NLC may from time to time approve representation on the NLC for states or geographic areas without organized councils. The NLC shall develop criteria and procedures for approving such representation and those criteria shall include (but are not necessarily limited to) the presence of a large number of TU members in the state or geographic area or the presence of a large and active chapter in the state or geographic area. No state or geographic area without an organized council may be represented at the NLC until the NLC has approved that state or geographic area for representation and has approved procedures by which that state or geographic area nominates and elects an NLC Representative. Those procedures shall be written and registered with the National Office of the Corporation. If the NLC approves representation from a state or geographic area without a council, the representative from that state or geographic area must have held some elected leadership position in a TU chapter within the state or geographic area. If at any time after approving a state or geographic area without a council for representation on the NLC, the NLC decides that such state or geographic area no longer meets the guidelines and criteria for representation on the NLC, the NLC may vote to eliminate that state’s or geographic area’s representation on the NLC.

- c. Duties. Each NLC Representative shall be responsible for representing his or her state on the NLC and acting as a liaison between the NLC and his or her state and for communicating with the council, chapters and members in his or her state on issues of national concern to the Corporation and on the proceedings of the NLC. Each NLC Representative shall also coordinate with his or her state council and the NLC on implementation of the National Conservation Agenda and the NLC's organizational development efforts.
- d. Nomination and Election. Each state council shall include in its council bylaws procedures for nominating and electing its representative on the NLC. Each council's selection process shall, at a minimum, provide every active chapter with a voice in the selection process. Each state council's procedures and amendments and changes to the procedures shall be reviewed and approved by the NLC, which shall establish a procedure for such review. NLC Representatives shall serve terms determined by the councils, but no NLC Representative shall serve more than five consecutive years on the NLC.
- e. Vacancies. Subject to the foregoing limitations and conditions, each state or geographic area with an NLC Representative shall elect an NLC Representative to fill any vacancy on the NLC created by the death, disability, removal, or resignation of its NLC Representative. Such NLC Representative so elected shall serve for the remainder of the unexpired term of the NLC Representative whom he or she replaces. State councils, or other states or geographic areas with NLC representation, shall promptly notify the National Office of the Corporation of any election pursuant to this paragraph.
- f. Removal. Any NLC Representative who shall be absent from two consecutive meetings of the NLC shall be automatically removed and the state council notified unless such absence is excused by the Secretary of the NLC. The NLC, by two-thirds vote at a regular or Special Meeting, may remove any NLC Representative whenever, in its judgment, the interest of the Corporation would be best served.

Section 3 – National Leadership Council Officers.

- a. Officers. The officers of the NLC shall be the Chair and Secretary of the NLC. Nominees for these positions shall be put forward by the Nominating Committee of the NLC. The nominees shall be selected by the NLC at its Annual Meeting and must receive a majority of the votes of NLC Representatives present at the meeting. If no nominee put forward by the Nominating Committee receives a majority of the votes of NLC Representatives present, or if the Nominating Committee fails to put forward any nominees, the NLC may elect a Chair and/or a Secretary of its own initiative. To be eligible to serve as NLC Chair or Secretary, a person must be a current or former NLC Representative. If a current NLC Representative is elected as Chair or Secretary, the state or other geographic area represented by that person shall elect a replacement to complete his or her term. The NLC Chair and the NLC Secretary shall each serve no more than four consecutive one year terms.
- b. Chair. The Chair of the NLC shall preside at all meetings of the NLC and shall be the chief liaison between the NLC and the Board of Trustees. The NLC Chair shall also be a member of the Board of Trustees, a member of the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees and Vice Chair of the Board of Trustees. The Chair of the NLC shall have the authority to appoint chairs of NLC committees, who shall be NLC members.
- c. Secretary. The NLC Secretary shall keep the minutes of the NLC in one or more books provided for that purpose; see that all notices are duly given in accordance with these Bylaws or as required by law; log attendance at all NLC meetings; notify state councils and National Staff of NLC actions; and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to the NLC

Secretary by the NLC Chair. The NLC Secretary shall also be a member of the Board of Trustees and the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees.

- d. Removal. The NLC, by two-thirds vote of its members, may remove any Officer of the NLC whenever, in its judgment, the interest of the Corporation would be served thereby.
- e. Vacancies. If the office of the Chair of the NLC becomes or is vacant for any reason, a successor shall be elected or appointed by the NLC from among qualified members of the NLC to hold office for the unexpired term. If the office of Secretary of the NLC becomes vacant for any reason, a successor shall be appointed by the Chair of the NLC from among qualified members of the NLC to hold office for the unexpired term.

Section 4. Regular Meetings. The NLC shall meet at least twice a year. One of the meetings of the NLC shall be held each year at the same place as and contemporaneously with the Annual Meeting of the Corporation's members. Other regular meetings of the NLC shall be held at a time and place decided by the NLC and may be held by conference call. Notice of such meetings shall be similar to that required for meetings of the Board of Trustees pursuant to Article V section 9. All Trustees shall be invited to attend meetings of the NLC, but shall not be obligated to attend.

Section 5. Special Meetings. A Special Meeting of the NLC may be called by, (a) the Chair of the NLC; or, (b) in the absence of the Chair, by the Chief Executive Officer and President of the Corporation; or (c) upon the request of ten NLC Representatives. Ten days notice of any Special Meeting shall be provided to each NLC Representative and NLC officer and shall state the purpose of the Special Meeting. The Special Meeting shall take place at such time and place as may be set forth in such notice and may be held by conference call.

Section 6. Action Without Meeting. The NLC may act upon written proposals and motions by mail, FAX, or electronic mail after reasonable advance notice when requested by the Chair of the NLC or by the Chief Executive Officer and President of the Corporation. Such written proposals and motions shall, to the extent possible, provide full and complete reports of the issues and the arguments advanced both for and against each proposition. Each NLC Representative or Officer who responds to the request of the Chair of the NLC or the Chief Executive Officer and President of the Corporation by voting by mail, FAX, or electronic mail shall be considered as having been present at a meeting of the NLC for the purpose of determining whether or not a quorum was present.

Section 7. Proxies. Proxy voting shall not be permitted at any meeting of the NLC.

Section 8. Substitute NLC Member. In the event an NLC member is unable to attend the Annual Meeting of the NLC, the NLC Secretary may permit a substitute attendee appointed by the council to attend and vote at the NLC meeting, provided the council gives notice to the NLC Secretary at least 24 hours prior to the meeting.

Section 9. Quorum and Manner of Acting. A majority of the members of the NLC (including NLC Representatives and officers) shall constitute a quorum necessary for the transaction of business at any meeting of the NLC. The Chair of the NLC shall preside at meetings of the NLC. In the Chair's absence, the Secretary of the NLC shall preside. If both shall be absent, the NLC members present shall elect a Chair and a secretary for such meeting.

Section 11. Notices and Meetings of Board of Trustees. All NLC members shall be invited to attend meetings of the Board of Trustees, but shall not be obligated to attend.

Section 12. Committees. The Nominating Committee of the NLC shall nominate individuals to serve as Grassroots Trustees and as NLC officers. The Chair of the NLC shall select and appoint the members of the Nominating Committee of the NLC and may appoint non-NLC members to the nominating committee, so long as 75% of the members of the nominating committee are NLC members. The NLC may create and its Chair shall appoint the members of any committees or working groups, including persons who are not NLC members, that are necessary or desirable to further any of the purposes of the NLC.

Section 13. Policies and Procedures. The NLC may promulgate any policies or procedures which are necessary or desirable to carry out the tasks and functions delegated to it by these Bylaws.

ARTICLE V Board of Trustees

Section 2. Board Composition. The Board of Trustees shall consist of not more than ten Grassroots Trustees and not more than 22 At-large Trustees. If he or she so desires, the immediate past Chair of the Board of Trustees may serve as a non-voting member of the Board of Trustees for a two year term.

Section 3. Grassroots Trustees. Two of the Grassroots Trustee positions shall be filled by the Chair and Secretary of the NLC. The other eight Grassroots Trustees shall be nominated by the NLC and elected by the membership at the Annual Meeting of the members.

- a. Qualifications. To be eligible to serve as a Grassroots Trustee, a candidate must be a TU member in good standing, must have demonstrated expertise in matters of organizational development, advocacy, budget, finance, risk management, development, or national policy relevant to the goals of the Corporation, or such other expertise or skills relevant to the goals of the Corporation deemed necessary or appropriate by the NLC. Other than the Chair and Secretary of the NLC, no person may simultaneously serve as an NLC Representative and as a Grassroots Trustee.
- b. Nomination. Nominees for Grassroots Trustees may be submitted to the NLC by state councils according to procedures developed by each council. In states without councils, nominees may be submitted by individual chapters. No state council or other state or geographic area with NLC representation shall submit more than one nominee at a time to the NLC. Each state Nominee submitted to the NLC shall be referred to the Nominating Committee of the NLC. The Nominating Committee of the NLC shall then narrow the number of nominees to the number needed to fill the available openings. The NLC shall then vote on the slate of nominees submitted by the NLC Nominating Committee or choose another slate of nominees, including candidates nominated at the NLC meeting, and forward to the Secretary of the Corporation and to the Chief Executive Officer and President the slate of nominees approved by the NLC to be submitted for election by the membership of the Corporation at the Annual Meeting of the Corporation. Additional nominees satisfying the qualifications set forth above may be put forth at the Annual Meeting by any member.

Section 4. At-large Trustees. At-large Trustees shall be nominated by the Nominating Committee of the Board of Trustees, shall be members of the Corporation in good standing, shall have demonstrated Section 5. Election and Terms. Trustees shall serve a term of two years commencing at the beginning of the Corporation's fiscal year following the Annual Meeting of members at which they are elected. Names of nominees for Trustees shall be submitted by the Chair of the Nominating Committee to the Secretary of the Corporation or his or her designee at least 60 days in advance of each Annual Meeting of the members and the names of such nominees shall be included in the notice of such meeting. Election of Trustees shall require the approval of a majority of the members in good standing, present or by proxy, voting at such meeting.

Section 6. Limitation of Terms. No Trustee shall serve more than three two-year terms, except that, upon the recommendation of the Nominating Committee and the approval by a majority of the Board of Trustees, (a) a Trustee who is the Chair, Secretary, or Treasurer of the Board of Trustees may stand for election for such additional terms as shall coincide with that Trustee's terms as an officer as set out in Article VI of these Bylaws and (b) a Trustee who is the Chair of one of the Board of Trustee's standing committees may stand for election for one additional two-year term. No trustee shall serve more than ten consecutive years as a Trustee, except that a Trustee who is the Chair, Secretary, or Treasurer of the Board of Trustees may serve out his or her terms in those positions as provided in Article VI of these Bylaws even if, by doing so, he or she serves more than ten consecutive years as a Trustee. After a break in service of two or more years, an individual may again serve as a Trustee.

Section 7. Vacancies. A vacancy occurring during the term of office of one of the At-large Trustees may be filled by the remaining members of the Board of Trustees upon the recommendation of the Nominating Committee of the Board of Trustees at any meeting of the Board and no election by the general membership is required. A vacancy occurring during the term of office of a Grassroots Trustee may be filled by the NLC upon the recommendation of the Nominating Committee of the NLC at any meeting of the NLC and no election by the general membership is required. A Trustee elected or appointed to fill a vacancy shall serve for the unexpired term of such Trustee's predecessor in office. A Trustee's service for the remainder of the term of a vacant position shall not be considered for the purpose of the limitation of terms provided in Section 5 above.

Section 8. Rights and Responsibilities. All Trustees shall have the same rights and responsibilities.

Section 9. Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Trustees shall be held at least twice annually at a time and at a place decided by the Board of Trustees. It shall be the duty of the Chief Executive Officer and President or his or her designee to cause such a written notice of any regular meeting of the Board of Trustees to be delivered to each Trustee and the Legal Advisor at least thirty (30) days preceding any meeting. Such notice shall specify the place, day and hour of meeting. The purpose for which the meeting has been called need not be stated, but when possible, an agenda of the meeting shall be included with such notice. The written notice shall be deemed to be delivered when (a) deposited in the U.S. mail, addressed to such Trustee at his or her address as it appears on the records of the Corporation, with postage thereon prepaid, (b) given by means of electronic communication; or (c) given by any other means permitted by law.

Section 10. Special Meetings. Special Meetings of the Board of Trustees may be called by (a) the Chair of the Board; or (b) in his absence, by the Vice-Chair; or (c) in the absence of both, by the Chief Executive Officer and President; or (d) upon the request of eight Trustees. Such written proposals and motions shall, to the extent possible, provide full and complete reports stating the issues and explaining the arguments advanced both for and against each proposition. Each Trustee who responds to the request of the Chair, Vice Chair, or Chief Executive Officer and President for such meeting by voting by mail, FAX, or electronic communication shall be considered as having been present at a meeting of the Board of Trustees for the purpose of determining whether or not a quorum was present.

Section 12. Proxies. Proxy voting shall not be permitted at meetings of the Board of Trustees.

Section 13. Quorum and Manner of Acting. A majority of the Board of Trustees shall constitute a quorum necessary for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board of Trustees, except that, for the sole purpose of filling vacancies on the Board of Trustees, twenty-five percent of the Board of Trustees shall constitute a quorum. The act of a majority of the Trustees present at any meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Trustees, unless the act of a greater number is required by statute or by these Bylaws. The Chair of the Board shall preside at meetings of the Board. In the Chair's absence, the Vice Chair shall preside. If both shall be absent, the Trustees present shall elect a Chair for the meeting.

Section 14. Removal. Any Trustee who shall be absent from two consecutive meetings of the Board of Trustees shall be automatically removed unless such absence is excused in advance by the Chair of the Board of Trustees. The Board of Trustees, by two-thirds vote at a regular or Special Meeting, may remove any Trustee whenever, in its judgment, the interest of the Corporation would be served.

The Executive Committee shall act in the interim between meetings of the Board of Trustees and shall be responsible for personnel matters. The Executive Committee shall promptly provide a detailed report of all of the actions of the Executive Committee to members of the Board of Trustees.

Section 16. Board Committees. Unless otherwise stated, the Chair shall appoint the chair and membership of each committee.

For purposes of constituting the Nominating Committee, the Chair of the Board of Trustees shall appoint the members of the Committee, but, in any event, the Chair of the NLC shall be a member of the Committee. The Nominating Committee shall also be responsible for working with the Chief Executive Officer and President and Chair of the Board of Trustees to create a succession plan for the officers of the Corporation.
- b. Audit Committee. The audit committee shall (a) Select the audit firm to conduct an independent audit of the organization's financial statements; (b) Ensure a direct line of communications with the organization's auditor; (c) Provide oversight of management's performance with respect to required and recommended financial responsibilities and disclosure; (d) Consider and review, with management and the auditors, the adequacy of the organization's risk management methodology and internal controls, including computerized information system controls and

- d. Other Committees. Upon a majority vote of its members, the Board of Trustees may create such other committees as are necessary or desirable to carry on the business and affairs of the Corporation; except that authority to promote and direct the resource initiative planning process, to set the national resource agenda for the Corporation and to facilitate national resource efforts with the National Staff of the Corporation shall rest with the NLC.

Section 19. Trustee Conflicts of Interest. No Trustee shall enter into a contractual relationship with Trout Unlimited for the benefit of the Trustee without approval of the Board of Trustees. Any Trustee entering into such a contract shall make a full disclosure to the Board and may discuss the matter with the Board of Trustees, but shall not be in attendance when the Board votes on such a contract. No contract or other transaction between the Corporation and one or more of its Trustees or any other corporation, firm, association, or entity in which one or more of its Trustees is a director or officer or is financially interested, shall be either void or voidable if:

- a. the fact of such relationship or interest is fully disclosed or known to the Board of Trustees or committee thereof which authorizes, approves, or ratifies the contract or transaction by a vote or consent sufficient for such purpose without counting the votes or consents of such interested Trustees: and
- b. the contract or transaction is fair and reasonable to the Corporation. Interested Trustees may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the Board of Trustees or committee thereof which authorizes, approves, or ratifies such contract or transaction.

The reimbursement of a Trustee for expenses incurred in attending meetings or other work on behalf of the Corporation shall not be considered a conflict of interest.

As provided in the Michigan Non-Profit Corporation Act and subject to the limitations set forth therein, including any requirement that the Corporation remain exempt from taxation under the Internal Revenue Code, Trustees, NLC Officers, Officers, the Corporate General Counsel and Legal Advisor who serve without compensation or with nominal compensation shall not be liable for damages resulting from the exercise of judgment or discretion in connection with their duties or responsibilities unless the act or omission involved willful or wanton conduct.

Section 2. Indemnification. With respect to claims or liabilities arising out of service as a Trustee, Officer, NLC Officer or Legal Advisor, the Corporation shall indemnify and advance expenses to each present and future Trustee, Officer, NLC Officer, Corporate General Counsel and Legal Advisor (and his or her estate, heirs and personal representatives) to the fullest extent allowed by the laws of the State of Michigan, both as now in effect and as hereafter adopted or amended.

Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit, or proceeding described in this Article shall be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of the action, suit, or proceeding upon receipt of any undertaking by or on behalf of the person being indemnified to repay the expenses if it is ultimately determined that he or she is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation. The undertaking shall be by unlimited general obligation of the person on whose behalf advances are made but need not be secured. Section 6. Non-Exclusivity. The indemnification or advancement of expenses provided under this Article is not exclusive of other rights to which a person seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under the Articles of Incorporation, or Bylaws of the Corporation, or a contractual agreement of the Corporation. However, the total amount of expenses advanced or indemnified from all sources combined shall not exceed the amount of actual expenses incurred by the person seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses. The indemnification provided for in this Article continues as to a person who ceases to be a Trustee, Officer, employee, or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of the person.
